

Little Wound School Parent E-Mail and Internet Permission Form

We are pleased to offer the students of Little Wound School access to the school computer network for electronic mail and the Internet. To gain access to e-mail and the Internet, all students under the age of 18 must obtain parental permission and must sign and return the form to the school secretary.

Little Wound School's intent is to make Internet access available to further educational goals and objectives. Although some material accessible via the Internet may be potentially offensive, Little Wound School is configured with a protective firewall, and will make every effort to provide supervision at all times while students are online, however, an occasional break in firewall security systems is possible.

Little Wound School reserves the right to publish pictures of students on the web for educational purposes according to federal copyright standards. No personal information will be provided other than the student's first name.

The following is not permitted:

- Sending or displaying offensive messages or pictures or using obscene language
- Accessing e-mail for unacceptable use/accessing chat rooms for personal use
- Harassing, insulting or attacking others
- Damaging computers, computer systems or computer networks
- Violating copyright laws
- Using another's passwords
- Transmission into another's folders or files without permission
- Intentionally wasting limited resources
- Revealing personal information of self, or any other user
- Use of the Internet for commercial activities or for-profit reasons not pertaining to Little Wound School
- Lobbying for personal or political purposes

Users should not expect that files stored on district servers will always be private. Individual users of the school computer networks are responsible for their behavior and communications over those networks. It is presumed that users will comply with school standards and behavior and will honor this agreement. Beyond the clarification of such standards, the school is not responsible for restricting, monitoring, or controlling the communications of individuals utilizing the network.

The use of the Internet and electronic e-mail is a privilege and not a right and inappropriate use will result in cancellation of these privileges.
